Second Lieutenants arrived in Vietnam to join units within or supporting the two divisions deployed to Vietnam.

The 3rd Marine Division served in Vietnam from 1965 until 1969. By October of 1966 the 3rd MarDiv was given responsibility for Quang Tri and Thua Thien provinces and to establish strong points south of the DMZ. Division operations were the major factors in denying North Vietnamese regulars a stable base of operations along the border with North Vietnam and Laos. 3rd Marine Division units operating out of bases at Camp Carroll, Khe Sanh Combat base, the Rockpile, Vandegrift Combat Base and in operations around Dong Ha, Cam Lo, the A Shau Valley, Con Thien, and Da Nang substantially secured I Corps during their time in Vietnam.

By June 1966, the entire 1st Marine Division was in South Vietnam, its zone of operation—the southern two provinces of I Corps—Quang Tin and Quang Ngai. Between March and October 1966 to May 1967, the division conducted 44 named operations. Throughout its area of operation, members of the 1st, 5th, 7th, and attached 26th and 27th Marines, and their supporting units, were successful in battle against their NVA and Viet Cong enemy. During the 1968 Tet Offensive, the division was involved in fierce fighting with both Viet Cong and NVA elements and was successful in beating back enemy assaults in its operation areas. Place names now recorded in Marine Corps history were major success stories for the 1st Marine Division: Hue; Khe Sanh; the Batangan Peninsula; Marble Mountain; and the Que Son Valley. After six hard years of combat, the 1st MarDiv returned to Camp Pendleton in 1971.

The highly experienced, Vietnam-veteran battlefield tour leaders of MILITARY HISTORICAL TOURS have walked all of I Corps. We have an outstanding working relationship with the Vietnam government that allows us access to areas previously restricted to other travelers. Our guides have been back to Vietnam dozens of times and are intimately familiar with the terrain, the battlefields, and the people. They have escorted American veterans and family members, aged 13 to 84, all of whom had richly rewarding and highly memorable trips. Each tour is custom-tailored from our time-proven basic itinerary. This ensures the most complete tour package possible, taking you to the most important places of your particular time or interest in the war. Vietnam is eager to welcome the returning American veterans. The Vietnamese people are gracious and sincerely happy to have us with them again. The scenery is great, the food is delicious, and the hotels in which we stay are beautiful and very comfortable. Your family would love it, too.

And now the best part . . . at only $2,495 per person, this tour is an outstanding value, making it not only affordable for you to travel, but also to bring other family members. You can invite your friends to come along, too. Together we will visit the sites at which we fought and which are written in our collective history. The price includes everything you see, except your airfare, drinks and souvenirs. The single supplement is only $595.
