Subj: Battalion Parade and Review

1. Background

- a. This company will conduct a Battalion parade and review at the Camp Barrett Parade Field on 15 April.
- b. The company will be divided into two provisional companies with three platoons of 29 men each. In addition the company will provide a CO of Troops, a Battalion Staff, a color detail, and an escort detail.

2. Uniform

- a. The uniform prescribed for all students will be Blue Undress. Ribbons, badges, gloves and name tags will be worn. Officers designated for officer and staff billets will carry swords. Guidon bearers will wear white belts and all students in ranks will carry M-14 rifles.

3. Formations

- a. The Color Company, composed of the 1st, 2nd, and portions of the 3rd platoons, will form in Parking Lot #9 at 1450, and will subsequently move to the area adjacent to the Southwest Wing of Heywood Hall in time to receive the colors at 1500. The Second Provisional Company consisting of the remainder of the company will form in Parking Lot #6 at 1455, and will fall in behind the Color Company as it proceeds to the drill via Tripoli Avenue.

4. Guests

- a. All officers are authorized and encouraged to invite guests. Guest parking will be in Parking Lots #9 and #10. A shuttle service will provide transportation from the parking lots to the Drill Field. All officers will insure their cars are removed from Parking Lots #9 and #10 by 0800 on 15 April. Guests should be cautioned to arrive no later than 1545, to insure they are seated prior to adjutants call at 1530. Ladies should wear hats and gloves.
