Experiences to Share:

Best:

Working with some really great Marines and running SAR missions that were successful.

Worst:

TET Offensive, (I had been in country for two weeks); unsuccessful SAR missions.

Favorite Memories:

After Service:

Children growing up and doing well on their own, grandkids, (now numbering seven), sailing with my lady and my continuing enjoyment of retirement.

Jobs:

After Service:

I worked for a major bank in Baltimore, and then joined the Rouse Co. as a mortgage banker before going into the real estate development business on my own in Richmond, Va..
